Job Description

2023 will potentially see Sandoz become a standalone organization! Already a global market leader in Generics and Biosimilar medicine, this is an exciting, once-in-a-career opportunity to set our own path forward as an independent, purpose-driven organization, and as the founders of a new Sandoz, this is a time of immense opportunity for us all, both professionally and personally.

Together we will shape the future of Sandoz... are you ready to make a difference?

Job Summary/Purpose

Driven by a passion to help our leaders, managers, and employees around the world “do what’s right”, the Behavioral Science working student will support the application of behavioral science to enrich Sandoz’s approach to Ethics, Risk and Compliance.

Under the direction of the Head of Behavioral Science & Data Science, this position will be responsible for delivering insights to academic literature, publications from organizations, and the creation of our knowledge base.

This position is available for a part-time contract (20h/week) for a minimum of 12 months. Hybrid work is available.

Your Key Responsibilities

Your responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Support our behavioral science capability in various tasks such as research
- Build a wikipedia for behavioral science use cases
- Literature review from various sources and feeding the insights into our wikipedia

Diversity & Inclusion / EEO

We are committed to building an outstanding, inclusive work environment and diverse teams representative of the patients and communities we serve.

Minimum Requirements

What you’ll bring to the role

- Advanced study (at least 2 years) in a field of behavioral sciences such as psychology, behavioral economics, decision sciences, sociology, or similar
- Experience in literature review
- Experience in writing texts in English
- Fluency in English

Why Sandoz?

Almost 500 million patients were touched by Sandoz generic and biosimilar medicines in 2022 and while we're proud of this, we know there is more we could do to continue to help pioneer access to medicines for people around the world.

We are at a pivotal moment in our history giving us the freedom to invest in our future so we can continue to help millions of people access affordable high-quality medicines. Together we will shape the future of Sandoz, building an organization from the ground up and in return, experience an ambitious environment with impactful, flexible-hybrid careers, where diversity is welcomed and where personal growth is encouraged!

The future is ours to shape!
